A Scout Is Kind

One of the most important words in Scouting has four letters. A Scout is KIND.

Kindness is akin to one of the most important statements in all of religion: Do unto others as you would have others do unto you. Or stated another way: treat other people the way you want to be treated. We recognize these words as the Golden Rule.

Well, that means the "Golden Rule" of Scouting might be stated this way: "Be KIND to others."

Our boys need to see this word in action, week in and week out in our Scouting.

Being KIND starts with us—the adult volunteers of Pack 266.

Being human, we aren't always going to agree on a decision. This is a good thing. We adults bring different skills and strengths to Scouting, and to our boys.

We can, and should, see things differently, and sometimes disagree.

But we have an obligation at all times to BE KIND. It's not our job to JUDGE one another, or to FIND FAULT with one another. It's our job to BE KIND.

That's the Scout Law. It's a Golden Rule of Scouting. And it begins with us.
